

AKASHIC RECORDS CONSULTATION CONSENT FORM

The “Akashic Records” are the past, present, and future knowledge of all things. They are the recording of a Soul’s journey from its inception to the present, and point to the possibilities of its spiritual development. The Akashic Field is referenced in most religions of the world. I use a Sacred Prayer to open your Records. Information from your Records is offered with the greatest honor, integrity, and love and is meant to assist you in growing personally and spiritually for your highest good and healing. All counsel given and received in this session will be kept confidential.

To a large extent, your openness determines what happens during the session. The information given is not intended as fortune telling and sometimes requires work on your part to meet the challenges and suggestions offered in your best interest. The future is not fixed and you have the power to create your future.

This consultation is intended to provide general and inner developmental information only and is not intended as legal or financial advice, psychological or psychiatric counsel, medical advice, diagnosis or treatment. Consult your physician or health care professional regarding particular health matters. The consultant disclaims any liability arising directly or indirectly from any information given or received in this consultation.

Thank you for the honor of serving you in this manner.
